

ARTS DIRECTORY

Over-the-top French comedy

Little did the middle-class George Dandin know that in marrying Angélique de Sotenville to acquire the title of Monsieur de la Dandinière and ceding his vast bourgeois fortune that he would pay a price of humiliation and cuckoldry! Enter the rebellious Angélique and her street-smart maid Claudine, add Lubin and his Casanova aristocratic master Clitandre and the foppish couple Monsieur and Madame de Sotenville Viscount and Viscountess, parents of Angélique, and you have a fast-moving, wildly lurching horse-drawn carriage to disaster ... the precipice beckons and not even Dandin's quick mind can avert the inevitable.

Melbourne French Theatre presents The Frustrated Husband (George Dandin ou le Mari Confondu by Molière) in French with English surtitles. Directed by Christopher Hosking and produced by Michael Bula.

Shows: Saturday, September 6; Tuesday, September 9 and Saturday, September 13 at 8pm; 2.30pm matinees on Saturdays.

Venue: La Maison de Maitre

ADVERTISING FEATURE

Building, 203-205 Canning Street, Carlton.

Tickets: $37, $33, $29 and $17 (includes wine or beverage and cheese).

Bookings: melbournefrenchtheatre.org.au or call 9349 2250.