Melbourne French Theatre presents the hilarious Des Courtes Lignes de Courteline. From the same company that brought Le Petit Prince in 2007, this collection of comical sketches in the spirit of Vaudeville tradition is performed entirely in French with English subtitles.

Director and producer Michael

Laughing au Francais

Bula, brings to life 'Monsieur Badin' (Mr Badin); 'Une Lettre Chargée' (A Registered Letter); 'L'Extra-Lucide' (The Super Clairvoyant) and 'Avant et Après' (Before and After).

The director, a NAATI qualified translator gives audiences the rare privilege of experiencing English versions of these wonderful plays.

Michael, together with Eddy K Fatha (The Importance of Being Earnest, Run for your Wife) and Sabrina Manach (The Importance of Being Earnest) stretch their considerable talents into various roles.

Sneak previews are 3pm and 6pm on Sunday May 16 at The Theatre Husk, 161A Heidelberg Road, Northcote, next to the Wine Storage Company. Parking in Westfield Street.

Tickets are $15, $18 and $20.

Phone: 9349 2250. Online payment preferred at www.mftinc.org/manual_bookings/
