

Friday, May 8, 2009 THE AGE

THEATRE

BESIDES wine and cheese the next-most famous French export might be the farce. Caught In the Net has played to packed houses since 2007 in Paris and is now on this weekend at the Collingwood College Theatre. The set-up: a taxi driver has been secretly married to two women for 18 years. The twist: things unravel. In case your Francais is a little rusty, Melbourne French Theatre are presenting this fast-paced comedy with English subtitles.

WHEN: 2.30pm and 8pm today and tomorrow. Corner Cromwell Street and McCutcheon Way, Collingwood. Tickets from $29 / $26 on 9349 2250. mftinc.org